The shipment included 7 x 76-mm AA guns, 12 to 15 trucks, 1 small one-axle trailer, which was about 1.2 meters high and wide, 15 meters long and covered with tarpaulins, 140 to 160 men of whom 92 had arrived in march column. A railroad man said that the loading operations were performed at the loading remp near the warehouse at the field. The railroad cars for this shipment had been requested at the Verneuchen railroad station by a Soviet lieutenant colonel on 2 February. In this connection, Major Smirnov (fnu) was repeatedly mentioned. An AA unit which had left Neubukov on 12 February arrived in Werneuchen on 13 February. The shipment was composed of the same railroad cars as the shipment observed on 4 February. The shunter of the train stated that the shipment was unloaded near the warehouse at the field. Fetween 4 and 12 February, the two AA gun emplacements in the western section of the sirfield were vacant. The emplacements could no longer be observed after 13 February.  $^2$

Comment. Werneuchen sirfield is used for practice flights by pilots of a nearby sirfield, possibly Finow sirfield.
 Comment. These shipments were previously reported. See
 The information confirms that redium AA units with at least 7 x 76-nm AA guns are now stationed at Merneuchen mirfield. The AA guns which have no longer been observed in the onglescements since the transfer of the komber units from Merneuchen are protebly parked in the vacant hangers. Newlykow is the unloading station for the Mustrow AA firing range on the Baltic Sea.
 Commenta Maloletney and Shtimov have repeatedly been reported as the consignee of supply goods. Smirnov, mentioned in paragraph 2, is probably identical with Shtimov.
